In all his glory

On the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, many Christian churches celebrate the Transfiguration of Our Lord. After telling his shocked, uncomprehending disciples that he would die and rise again, Jesus took Peter, James and John up a mountain. Suddenly Jesus appeared to be glowing! "He was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light" (Matthew 17:2, ESV).

Moses and Elijah appeared, and a voice said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him" (verse 5). Jesus' disciples fell to the ground, overcome by fear. But Jesus touched them, told them not to be afraid and led them down the mountain.

The disciples witnessed firsthand the glory and Godhood of Jesus, who would soon die for the sins of the world and rise again to give us life.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH

Dustin and Chrissa

We would like to thank Joel Crisp for joining us this morning and sharing his talent. Please make him feel welcome.

Welcome

If you have been a member here at Oak Grove for at least one year, we need your help.

The youth will be attending the annual youth retreat at Ridgecrest on March 22-24, and we need one female chaperone to volunteer for this conference.

Please contact Joe or Karen Baker at (423) 915-6342 if you are willing to help out.
